

2.2.1 STUDENT DEVELOPMENT TRACKING SYSTEM

Case 1: Mr.Tushar Surve- 2019-2021 Batch

Dr. Kajal Maheshwari has been mentoring Mr. Tushar Surve from the 2019-21 batch. Tushar was described as an introvert and a withdrawn student at the start of the first semester. He lacked confidence and found it difficult to mingle with his classmates.

He was unable to concentrate on his studies and perform well in his examinations due to ill health and certain personal issues at home. With regular counselling and motivation from the mentor and class teacher, he sought to fight against all odds and develop not only his class performance but also his personality. He was also appointed the Class representative; his classmates put trust in him and voted for him. This incident helped him to come out of his cocoon and mingle more with his classmates and make new friends. Tushar was an active member in Zing Cultural fest 2019 for actively organizing events and also helping in deciding the activities. He went on to become a very friendly and confident person with good interaction skills. He went on to take part in an Intercollegiate Book review competition which helped him lose stage fear and increase his confidence.

He willingly offered to take the responsibility of volunteering for the Inter-collegiate Sports events and Zing. Yuvotsav-2019 and successfully accomplished his assigned tasks. He also bagged three placement offers from companies such as Bajaj Finance, Lokmat group and Silver Bright industries Pvt ltd. He has begun career by joining Bajaj Finance.

Case 2: Mr.Shriyash Patil- 2019-21 Batch

Shriyash Patil is a Mechanical Engineer and he has always scored well in his graduation. He was placed with an organization during his engineering however he was not interested in joining the company because he was not interested in working in the engineering field.

Despite his academic excellence, he has always thought that he did not have enough exposure at his former college and hence was unable to develop his confidence. He says that since joining SBPIM, he has had so many opportunities to improve his self-confidence, become more engaged, and take advantage of every opportunity to grow his personality and surpass his stage.

He was a very active student in class and also bagged prizes at many events in college as well as inter-collegiate sports events. He was an active volunteer and participant in many sport competitions and Zing respectively. Shriyash participated in Panache 2.0 - Table Tennis, at Smt. Hiraben Nanavati Institute of Management & Research for Women, Karve Nagar, Pune, and won the first Runner-Up title and Prize Money as well. He also won a 2nd runner up title for Table tennis at Emblaze 2.0 Kirloskar Institute of Advanced Management Studies, Pune.

There were several instances when he went through peer pressure and also depression during his stint at college, thinking about his future since he is elder than his classmates, for this he was encouraged and counseled a lot by a few faculty members. Shriyash went on to bag a good internship offer in copywriting and went on to get an offer from an American copywriting company. He discovered his art for writing and soon was able to convert his passion into a well paying freelancing job. He plans to open his own entrepreneurial venture in the future. He was able to embrace his passion and direct in towards the right path.
